We expect the auto industry to change more in the next 5 years than it has in the last 50. GM is ready to lead these changes by investing heavily in game-changing technologies and services.
By the end of 2017, GM anticipates having 12 million connected vehicles on four continents.
Up to 15% of new cars sold in 2030 could be fully autonomous.

McKinsey & Company
GM’s acquisition of Cruise Automation will help deliver greater convenience, lower cost and improved safety for customers.
ELECTRIFICATION
Chevrolet Bolt EV
A game-changing electric vehicle.
238-mile range
starting at $37,495
SHARING
Today, 15 million people use shared mobility services. By 2020, it will be more than 50 million.
GM’s Maven car-sharing brand is operating in Boston, NYC, Jersey City, D.C., Detroit, Denver, Ann Arbor, Chicago, Orlando, Los Angeles and San Francisco.
GM has invested $500 million in Lyft, the fastest-growing ridesharing company in the U.S.
GENERAL MOTORS
Putting the customer at the center of everything we do.