

Library

Is the library open?

No. The Library is currently closed through at least April 13.

Are there still library programs at the Community Center?

There are no programs occurring at the Community Center or any other offsite location at this time.

Can I still return my library items?

You can still return your library items in the book returns located on the library building. They are located to the right of the front doors. The curbside bookdrop is closed.

If I can't get to the library and my items are due, will I be charged fines?

No fines will be charged. All items that were due from March 13 - March 31 are now due May 1.

If I have a hold waiting for me in the Library, will it be held for me until the Library opens again?

All holds will be held for you until the Library reopens.

Is the Friends bookstore still taking donations?

No donations are currently being taken while the library is closed.

Can I get a library card online?

Yes. You may apply at shpl.net/1578. Once we resume normal hours of operation, you will need to provide picture ID and proof of residency at the library to check out physical materials.

Do you have ebooks or other digital media that I can borrow?

The library has an abundance of ebooks, audiobooks, digital magazines, online tutoring and more. All of the links to the library's digital services are available on our website www.shpl.net. Click on Services at the top and then Online Services.
