Reforming Michigan’s Municipal Finance System
Anthony J. Minghine
Associate Executive Director & COO

Tony Minghine is the associate executive director and chief operating officer of the Michigan Municipal League, and has devoted his career to the service of local government. He joined the League in 2006 to have an opportunity to focus on the broader policy issues surrounding local government. His tenure with the League began as the chief financial officer, and he assumed his current post in July of 2007. Tony is a regular speaker on a variety of topics effecting local government, and plays a key role in training local officials. He is a tireless advocate for local government, and frequently testifies to the state legislature on matters relating to local government finance.

With over 25 years of combined experience, Tony is an expert in operational and finance issues relating to municipalities and non-profits. He is a member of the Michigan Society of Association Executives, the Governmental Finance Officers Association, and Michigan Governmental Finance Officers Association. He is a former member of the MGFOA Board of Directors and has received awards from the GFOA for excellence in financial reporting and popular financial reporting. Tony has served on the MGFOA’s legislative committee since 1998, and is a 1985 graduate of Wayne State University.

What are the issues?

Michigan’s municipal finance model is broken

• Municipal Funding doesn’t track with the economy
• Many problems cannot be fixed locally
• Not enough tools in the toolbox
• Need a 3 tiered approach
